

GeneScan

GMO Detection in Rice & Rice Products

Eurofins GeneScan, the most trusted name in GMO Testing for over a decade, offers the rice industry the most advanced analytical and stewardship solutions for detection and supply chain control of GMO rice varieties. Our laboratory is approved by Bayer Crop Science to test for trace amounts of LibertyLink Rice. Our services are always backed by our commitment to superior quality and expertise, quick turnaround time, responsive customer service and competitive pricing. Please inquire about special rates for samples sent in bulk.

- Accredited to ISO 17025 and AOAC International Guidelines for Food Laboratories
- Accredited by New Zealand MAF for GMO Testing of Seed Imports
- Procter & Gamble Pinnacle Award Winner for Laboratory Excellence since 2000
- Method for Detection of LibertyLink Rice Validated by USDA-GIPSA and European Commission Joint Research Centre
- PCR Tests at Different Detection Limits According to Requirements for Sensitive Rice Export Markets (Typically 1%, 0.5%, 0.1% and 0.01%, or Custom Testing Plans According to your Specifications)
- Successful Participation in all USDA-GIPSA Proficiency Programs for GMO Detection Since 2001 (Including Special USDA-GIPSA Program for Detection of LLRice601 & LLRice62)
- Leader in Non-GMO Identity Preservation Programs and Consulting
- Sampling and Inspection Services Available
- Unsurpassed and Comprehensive Portfolio of PCR Tests for GMOs in Different Varieties of Crops
- Customized Testing Strategies to Meet the Many Regulatory or Commercial GMO Testing Requirements of Today's International Seed, Grain, Food and Feed Industries

To learn more about our services, please call us at 504-297-4330, visit www.gmotesting.com or email us at gmo@eurofinsus.com.